

GET REAL ABOUT YOUR REEL.

Putting together a reel is no small task. It's time consuming, and sometimes stressful. But I'm here to help make it a smooth process. Fill out this helpful checklist, so that when we chat to discuss your reel, you've had the time to think about what you want. It's a great first step to making your reel great. You can print this out and fill it out manually, or fill it out electronically and save as a PDF.

1) What kind of reel are you looking for?

TV/Film Comedy Drama Combo Stage VO Other

2) What do you want included in your reel?

video clips how many?
 audio clips how many?
 headshots how many?
 still images how many?
 contact info you your rep

VIDEO CLIPS

3) List all your video clips. Include Show name, Season#, Episode#/Name. (Ex: 30 Rock, Season 6, ep: The Shower Principle) If you don't have clips, I can get them for you for a reasonable fee.

4) Gather all your raw video clips into a folder on your computer. (acceptable file formats: mov, mp3, mp4, mpeg, m4v) After our consultation, I will send you a Dropbox link to upload them.

AUDIO CLIPS

5) List all your audio clips. Include as much info as you have for each:

(Ex: Audio book: Pride and Prejudice, Narrator; Radio commercial: NY Lottery, "Puppies," AVO)

6) Gather all your raw audio clips into a folder on your computer. (file formats: wav, mp3, m4a)
After our consultation, I will send you a Dropbox link to upload them.

HEADSHOTS

7) Gather your headshots into a folder on your computer. (format: high res jpeg)
After our consultation, I will send you a Dropbox link to upload them.

CONTACT INFO

8) Fill out contact info for both you and your rep.

(Ex: Abrams Artists, Agent name, their email, their phone - only use contact info they approve)

PRODUCTION STILLs* (*NOT for TV/Film/Audio demos)

9) List all your production photos.

Identify each image with as much info as you have: Show name, role, venue

10) Gather production photos into a folder. format: high res jpeg)

After our consultation, I will send you a Dropbox link to upload them.

THANK YOU FOR TAKING THE TIME TO FILL THIS OUT.
IT WILL HELP ME BUILD YOU A GREAT REEL.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Doug Trapp'.